

Appreciation for 1,000 Likes and 8 FAQs about AYF

We are excited to have reached 1,000 likes three weeks ago. We look forward to more talented young people meeting one another.

Below is a compilation of the eight most frequently asked questions for people interested in the Asian youth Forum!

Q1: How will the Asian Youth Forum deal with the current coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic?

We do not plan on postponing the program. The number of people will be adjusted according to Ministry of Education regulations, currently no more than 200 people for indoor activities. The total number of people at AYF will be limited to 150, and we will offer hand sanitizer and face masks for protection.

Q2: What is the solution to foreigners reluctant to fly to Taiwan due to the pandemic?

Foreigners that are planning to fly to Taiwan should follow the regulations of the related policy. To ensure diversity of participants, we will also recruit foreigners or exchange students currently in Taiwan.

Q3: Benefits of Attending the Forum

Our program will feature awesome keynote speakers, who will provide additional inspiration on our four major themes. (I heard one of them is the Asia CEO of Minerva! Please keep this low-key please...) You will be able to discuss and exchange ideas with young people from other countries, in addition to the organizers which include 50 students from 15 universities. The program will also provide a valuable opportunity to hone your English listening and speaking skills.

Please refer to our Facebook post for additional information.

<https://www.facebook.com/2020AsianYouthForum/posts/122255059457188>

Q4: What is the value of the program?

Topic discussions encourage self-exploration. Cross-cultural communication promotes social connectivity. And the group work will help you develop altruism and practical skills. We warmly invite all young people who value self-growth and improvement to build our marvelous Generation!

Q5: What is included in the registration fee? Are accommodation and meals included?

The registration fee includes all meals and accommodation at the Landis Inn Chuhu, which is located close to National Tsing Hua University and National Chiao Tung University.

Please refer to this website for more:

<http://chuhu.landishotelsresorts.com/chinese-trad/index.php>

Q6: Details about available subsidies.

Our transportation on subsidy provides reimbursement based on actual expenses. The maximum is $1,000 NTD for local Taiwanese participants and up to $20,000 NTD (about $650 USD) if you have to fly to Taiwan. We do not provide other subsidy for low-income participants.

Q7: What are the age and education requirements?

Anyone between 18 and 30 years old is eligible. There are no restrictions on education level. The question on the registration form about current year level is optional.

Q8: Where is the registration link for foreign participants?

The link is the same as the Chinese version.

Go ahead and SIGH UP FOR AYF NOW!!! <https://forms.gle/xFkNkMkNmKtc6yfx6>